

Executive Explorer Card Program

Terms and Conditions

Eligibility

The Bank of America Executive Explorer Benefits program (the “Program”) is available to a business (the “Client”) with an Executive Explorer Corporate Card issued by Bank of America or its affiliate (“Bank of America”, “we” or “us”). “Program Account” means each Corporate Card account enrolled in the Program. A Program Account is eligible to earn and redeem benefits in the Program if, and for as long as, all the following conditions are met:

- The Client’s Corporate Card Services Agreement (“Agreement”) with Bank of America for the program has not terminated or expired, and the Client is not in default of such contract.
- The applicable Program Account is open and in good standing at the time of the qualifying transaction and any credit.
- All applicable annual card fees are paid in full by the due date per the terms of the Agreement.

Only qualifying purchases can earn statement credits as described below. A “Qualifying Purchase” is a point of sale purchase (card swipe), internet purchase, phone or contactless purchase (holding your Card or other device up to a secure reader), made with an eligible Executive Explorer Card, which is processed or submitted through the Visa U.S.A. Inc. or Mastercard payment system.

Any earned statement credits are forfeited if the Cardholder account is past due, closed, revoked, or otherwise not in good standing with Bank of America. Statement credits cannot be transferred to another Cardholder account. Clients nor Cardholders are entitled to compensation from Bank of America, or from any other entity, if a purchase is made with a merchant not identified within the benefit program below. Bank of America reserves the right to disqualify, suspend or terminate the Cardholder accounts that have materially violated any of these Terms and Conditions or the Agreement. Bank of America, acting reasonably in the circumstances, reserves the right to determine whether a particular Client or Cardholder is eligible to participate in the Executive Explorer Card Program.

Executive Explorer Benefits

Airport Fast Track Statement Credit: Each eligible Executive Explorer Cardholder may receive up to a $100 USD¹ statement credit (“Airport Fast Track Statement Credit”) for one eligible Program Account every four years applicable to the application fee, paid with an Executive Explorer Card, for one of the following:

¹ For Cardholders in the following jurisdictions (as indicated by the Client’s Agreement), the approximate value of the Airport Fast Track Statement Credit is as follows in the applicable currency (regardless of currency conversion rate changes in relation to the U.S. Dollar and the $100USD amount noted above for the United States) for the one eligible Program Account per four-year period: Canada: 135 CAD; UK: 80 GBP; Denmark: 650 DKK; Europe: 90 EUR; Norway: 850 NOK; Poland: 380 PLN; Sweden: 940 SEK; Switzerland: 100 CHF; Australia: 140 AUD; Hong Kong: 750 HKD; India: 6,900 INR; and Singapore: 130 SGD.

the TSA Pre✓^{®2}, Global Entry^{™3}, Nexus⁴ or Trusted Traveller⁵ programs (each, a “Travel Program”). Such four-year period begins on the date of the Cardholder’s first Qualifying Purchase transaction on the Program Account for the Travel Program application fee, and unused credit opportunities will not roll over to succeeding four-year periods. It may take up to four weeks from the date of such transaction for the Airport Fast Track Statement Credit to post to the Cardholder’s Program Account, or longer for a credit associated with a foreign transaction or online purchase. Statement credits on Mastercard Accounts will be considered to be received by the Cardholder as of the posting date of the statement credit itself for the Airport Fast Track Statement Credit, not the posting date of the qualifying transaction. Statement credits on Visa Accounts will be considered to be received by the Cardholder as of the posting date for the qualifying transaction itself. The Client is responsible for payment of all Cardholder charges until the Airport Fast Track Statement Credit posts to the applicable Cardholder’s account. The amount credited back to a Cardholder’s Executive Explorer Card will be up to a $100 USD statement credit (amount varies regionally; see note below), or if the application fee is less, the transaction amount, in each case excluding any foreign transaction (FX) fees, merchant surcharges or cross-border fees or other applicable fees. This may result in the credit being higher or lower than the actual transaction amount. If an eligible Cardholder applies for more than one Travel Program, the Airport Fast Track Statement Credit will be applied to the qualifying transaction that posts to the Cardholder’s account first, and any remaining amount of the Airport Fast Track Statement Credit would be applied to the subsequent qualifying transactions. The Cardholder’s account must be open and not in default at the time of statement credit fulfillment. No retroactive credit will be given for Travel Program application fees paid before eligibility. The amount of the Airport Fast Track Statement Credit benefit is not negotiable. Statement credits are not redeemable for cash, and shall also be subject to the Agreement’s applicable provisions.

Airport Lounge Statement Credits: Each eligible Executive Explorer Cardholder may receive up to a $600 USD⁶ statement credit for one eligible Program Account per calendar year in connection with use of specific airport lounges identified by Bank of America (“Airport Lounge Statement Credit”). Bank of America reserves the right to update or change the list of Included Lounges (below) at any time, with such changes being effective as of the date published. To qualify for the Airport Lounge Statement Credit, an eligible Cardholder must use its Executive Explorer Card to pay the lounge fee at an Included Lounge. Allow up to four weeks from such Qualifying Purchase transaction for the statement credit to appear on the Cardholder’s account, or longer for a credit associated with a foreign transaction or online purchase. Statement credits on Mastercard Accounts will be considered to be received by the Cardholder as of the posting date of the statement credit itself for the Airport Lounge Statement Credit, not the posting date of the qualifying transaction. Statement credits on Visa Accounts will be considered to be received by the Cardholder as of the posting date for the qualifying transaction itself. The amount credited back to a Cardholder’s Executive Explorer Card per calendar year will be up to a $600 USD statement credit, or if the transaction amount is less (for clarity, for transactions that are less than $600 USD (amount varies regionally; see notes below)), excluding any foreign transaction (FX) fees, merchant surcharges or cross-border fees or other applicable fees. This may result in the credit being higher or lower than the actual transaction amount. Client is responsible for payment of all lounge charges until any statement credit posts to the account. If an eligible Cardholder uses more than one Included Lounge, the Airport Lounge Statement Credit will be applied to the qualifying transaction that first posts to its account, and any remaining balance of the Airport Lounge Statement Credit would be applied to the subsequent qualifying transactions. The Cardholder’s account must be open and not in default at the time of statement credit fulfillment. No retroactive credit will be given for lounge fees paid before eligibility for the Airport Lounge Statement Credit. The amount of the Airport Lounge Statement Credit benefit is not negotiable. Unused Airport Lounge Statement Credit opportunities will not roll over to succeeding calendar years. Statement credits are not redeemable for cash, and shall be subject to the Agreement’s applicable provisions.
